Florida Whole Foods Market embraces SanRe Organic Skinfood

Whole Foods Market Inc. recently accepted local skincare company, SanRe Organic Skinfood (www.sanreorganic.com), into all 16 of its Florida Whole Foods' stores. SanRe, which also has Whole Foods' Premium Body Care certification, is a local, Sarasota, FL, family conceived and owned company.

SanRe is committed to organic conscious customers focused on luxurious yet natural beauty. SanRe's pampering products utilize beneficial organic ingredients and essential oils to lavish, hydrate, replenish and protect your vital skin. SanRe is environmentally conscious, subjects no animals to testing, and does not use nano particles.

SanRe's specifically formulated its beneficial products to naturally rejuvenate each body area and skin type. The skin care line includes natural facial and body moisturizers, toners, cleansers, eye creams/serums, exfoliators, masks and lip care.

Along with its Whole Food's certification, SanRe's true commitment to healthy people and planet are attested to by its other valued certifications and memberships, including: the Compact for Safe Cosmetics, American Herb Association, American Botanical Council, Green America, Coalition for Consumer Information on Cosmetics, Leaping Bunny, PETA and select Vegan certification. Please visit SanRe at www.sanreorganic.com for further information.
